

Please ensure, that the bluetooth software is installed already.

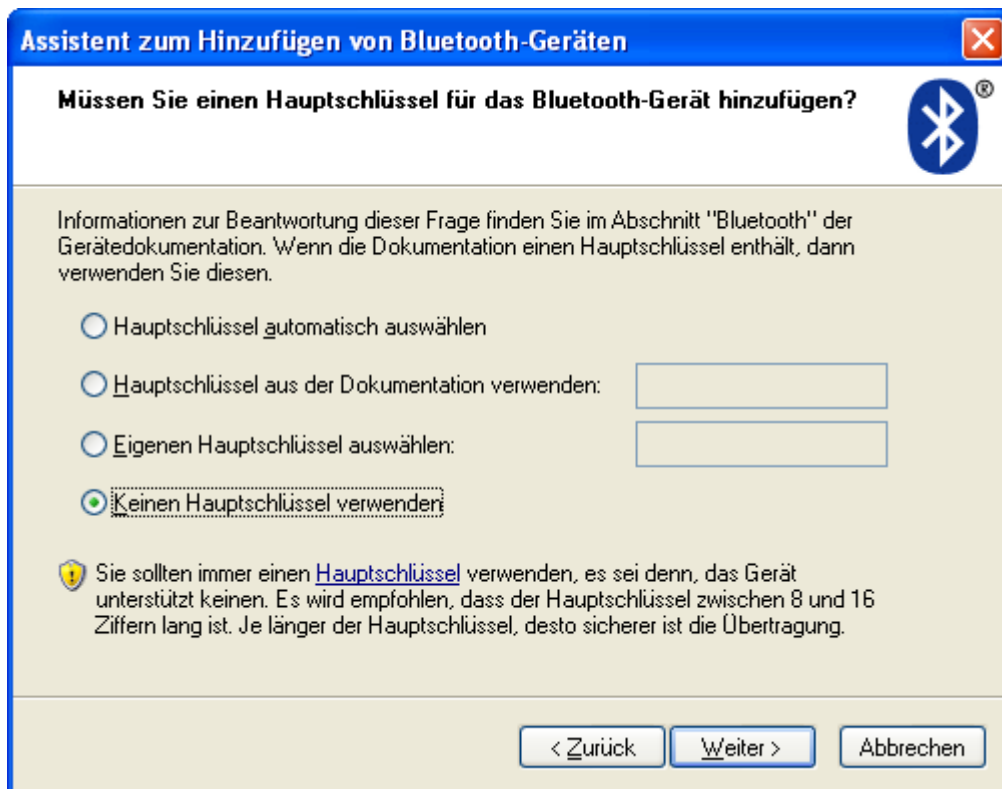

Start searching for devices in range.

Please select your printer and proceed with „next“.

You don't need to pair the pc-100 with a pc. Please select "Use no pass key" and proceed with "next".

Now install your printer driver and set the printer port in the printer software to the port which appears in the next window (default COM3).

